Because independence works better together.

WHO WE ARE

FIFS has been serving area families and businesses with objectivity and integrity since 1994. Our goal is to give you peace of mind knowing that the things that are important to you are protected at every stage in your life. We believe that independence is better together. That's why our agency is a Keystone partner agency. Keystone is a group of like-minded independent insurance agencies. Our affiliation with Keystone benefits you in three ways: our agency maintains its independence, we benefit from the expertise of our network, and we receive access to specialized products and services.
